

International Conversation Cafe

Lifestyle Topic: Travels and Journeys

Read through the following quotations and discuss the following questions.

To travel is to discover that everyone is wrong about other countries.
~Aldous Huxley (1894-1963)

*What do you think this quote means? Do you agree with the opinion of the author?
Give an example of how you discovered your initial thoughts about a country was wrong.
Which country is your favorite to visit? Why?*

It is not the destination where you end up but the mishaps and memories you create along the way. ~
Penelope Riley

*What is the funniest thing that happened to you while traveling?
What is the worst thing that has happened to you while traveling?
What advice would you give to someone about to take a trip?*

I took the road less traveled by, and that has made all the difference. ~Robert Frost (1874-1963)

*This quote is from a poem and is not so much about a literal road, but life decisions that are different than others.
Do you look at life like a journey? If so, how?
If you were to follow the advice in this quote, what would you change about your life?
Are there things that make life journeys easier, or harder?*

